

Golf Report 1/12/2024

The Men's Mills Plate matchplay was finalised on Saturday. Peter Schofield and Tom Murphy took the lead on the first and were never headed. They were 1 up at the turn and managed to get to 3 up before Scott Moylan and Marcus Muggleton made a brief comeback. Peter and Tom were able to claim their win on the 17th hole.

On Tuesday the vet's men played a stableford – a 2-ball aggregate with a draw for partners. Al Sheather and Gordon Dean teamed up for a total of 73 points to take the day. Mal Dickson and Jim Shadlow were 2nd with 69 followed by John Tom and Phil Thomas with 67. Don Sims won the Sper Vets.

The women played a 3-person Ambrose on Wednesday. Winners for the day was the team of Casey Trevithick, Leonie Davison and Sandy Swan. Runners up and best dressed were Cath Lane, Teena Myler and Libby Lennon. The competition was followed by a Christmas lunch and annual presentation. Results are on Facebook and will be on our Inverell Golf Club website when your correspondent's computer and files are available.

Thursday's 12-hole comp was won by Peter Wallace, 25 points, in a countback with Herbie Cox. Dave Ryan was next with 24 and Gordon Dean won the putting.

Sandy Cook was the best of the ladies on Saturday. She finished with 34 stableford points. Next were Teena Myler and Sue Urquhart with 32.

Ryan Kinnear celebrated his 13th birthday on Saturday. And what a way to celebrate. Ryan playing off a handicap of 21 recorded 78 off the stick, 13 under his handicap, giving him 49 points in the men's stableford competition. Ryan won the day, 6 points ahead of 2nd placed Shane Edmonds and another 5 ahead of Col Flood. He did lose 5 shots off his handicap for the next day. Others to perform well were James Davis and Marcus Muggleton, 37 and Dick Hudson, 36.

Nigel Hill was the winner of Sunday's medley stableford. He finished with 40 points, 3 ahead of Andrew Iskov. Harry Edmonds was next with 34.
