The Scott Mackenzie Lawyers Members Draw moves to $300. Jack Sandral was drawn but didn't play.

The Vineyard Tiles and Appliances Sunday's Members draw is now $750. Leonie Davison was drawn this week but didn't play.

Bob Watson was the winner of the Scott Mackenzie Lawyers 9 hole Tradies comp September 13. Bob finished with 23 points. Luke woodhouse took 2nd spot with 21 points.

There were good numbers for the Tuesday's vet's comp again. Dave Ryan was best in with his 36 points. James Moore and Col Flood were next with 34's followed by Bob Watson, Gordon Dean, Barry Young and Paul Johnson with 33.

Hendo was away in Sydney receiving his Order of Australia Medal so Peter Lloyd was able to take out the Super-Vets in a limited field.

The ladies played their monthly medal on Wednesday. Leonie Davison was the best of the field with nett 71. Dianne Uebergang was just one shot behind to take second spot. Helen Edwards finished with 74 and she was followed by Casey Trevithick and Sandy Cook on 75.

Gordon Dean is showing good form yet again. He followed up Tuesday's podium finish with 26 points and 1st place in Thursday's men's 12-hole comp. Next were the Delungra Duo, Greg Brabant and Max Uebergang playing together and each finishing with 25 points. No doubt questions were asked but be assured they are a very honest pair.

Sandy Swan was the best of the ladies for their Stableford on Friday. She finished with 37 points, one ahead of second placed Helen Lockwood.

The men played a modified stableford on Saturday. Hayden Grove was the star for the day finishing a clear winner with 48 points. Corey Borthwick was next with an impressive 45 points. Then came Steve Glover, David Hawker and Ross Tutt, each with 42. Next were Rowan Butler, 41, Bob Watson, 40, Jeremy Tickle, 39, and Tony Baldwin and Mick Fox with 38. Nathan Waters started the day well, landing his tee shot on the first hole just short of the green and then sinking the putt for an eagle.

Leigh Hobbs was the best of the ladies for their stableford finishing with 33 points.

28 players turned up for Sunday's medley stableford and the chance to win the lucky draw.. Harry Edmonds won the day with 40 points and an eagle on the 15th. James Davis and Greg Bushell finished with 38's and Peter Schofield and Steve Glover with 37's
