The Scott Mackenzie Lawyers Members Draw moves to $200. Aaron Deans was drawn but didn't play.

The Vineyard Tiles and Appliances Sunday's Members draw is now $700. Tom Skipper was drawn this week but didn't play.

Matt Reece was the winner of the Scott Mackenzie Lawyers 9 hole Tradies comp September 6. Matt finished with an impressive 27 points. Mal Dickson took 2nd spot with 26 points.

32 players lined up for Tuesday's vet's comp. Mal Dickson continued his good form finishing with 40 points and a win for the day. Graham Moore, Steve Glover and Max Uebergang were next with 38 points followed by Greg Brabant and Ross Tutt with 37. Al Bujack and Simon Smith completed the group of 8 players to record 36 points or better for the day.

Hendo won the Super-Vets and Peter Lloyd was runner-up.

The ladies played a stableford on Wednesday. Helen Tickle was the best in a small field with 33 points. On the same day 17 women from Inverell Golf Club enjoyed competing in the Warialda Open 4BBB with considerable success. Nett winners were Cath Lane and Libby Lennon with a score of 47 points. Congratulations to both ladies who have come through the 'Get into golf' programme. Scratch runner up winners were Sandra Williams and Bron Thorley. Cath Lane also picked up a NTP prize as did Anne Coote.

Thursday's rain was such a downpour that the men's 12-hole comp wasn't played. A most extraordinary occurrence. Rain doesn't usually trouble this hardy group.

Ange Driscoll was the winner of Saturday's ladies stableford. She finished with 34 points, 2 ahead of Teena Myler.

The men played a stableford on Saturday. There were no outstanding scores and only 5 of the 49 players finished with 36 or better. Ian Cutmore was the winner with a solid 38 points. He was followed by Dave Martell, Gary Sharpe and Paul Sterling with 37. Next were Gary Lamrock, 36, Bob Cook, 35 and Andrew Iskov, 34. Five players finished with 33 points.

25 players turned up for Sunday's medley stableford and the chance to win the lucky draw worth $650. Brett Woodward was the winner of the stableford with 35 points. Jed Leggett, Tim Moses, Harry Edmonds and Nick Glover all finished with 34 points to take the next 4 spots.

7 Inverell players travelled to Glen Innes to play in the Highland Classic over the weekend. Mat O'Reilly and Luke Woodhouse combined to finish 2nd today. Well done fellows.
