The Scott Mackenzie Lawyers Members draw has moved to $500 after Mick Ticehurst was drawn but didn't play.

The Vineyard Tiles and Appliances Sunday's Members draw is now $100. Don Sims was drawn but didn't play.

We were back to beautiful weather for Tuesday's vets comp. Winner for the day was Gordon Dean in a countback with Kevin Campbell. Each scored 37 points. Jeff Roberts, John Tom and Trevor Kiernan each won a ball with 34 points. Nearest the pins went to Mal Dickson, Greg Brabant and Gordon Dean while Graham Moore won the putting. John Tom won the 3 round Monthly Mug with a total of 98. He won in a countback with Trevor Kiernan.

Richard Black was the Super Vets winner.

The ladies played their 27-hole Foursomes Championships on Wednesday. Sandy Cook and Helen Lockwood combined to win the gross with a score of 133. Nett winners were Helen Edwards and Lynne Lamrock with a score of 108.25. nett Runners-up were Sandy and Helen with 112. 2nd Runners-up were Sandra Williams and Bronwyn Thorley.

Trevor Kiernan was the winner of the men's 12-hole comp on Thursday with 32 points. Des Douglass and Kevin Campbell finished 2nd and 3rd in a countback with 30 points. Graham Moore was nearest the pin and Trevor Kiernan won the putting.

Saturday was the Greenkeeper's Revenge. As if the work vehicles parked all over the course wasn't enough Ben managed to organise drenching rain to really challenge players. A field of 76 dropped down to 51 starters for the 3-person Ambrose. 5 teams pulled out after a heavy downpour proved a bit too much to handle. At the end of the day the winning team, with a score of 58.3, was Ben Watling (the greenkeeper), Luke Woodhouse and Captain Mat O'Reilly. Runners up were the Wyong team of Nate, Craig and Miller Wickham. They finished with a score of 62.5. Harry Edmonds, Jeremy Tickle and Corey Alexander were next with 64.

Mick Kinnear was the winner of Sunday's medley stableford with 'not a lot a points'. It was a small field and conditions weren't pleasant.
